Holiday Park Description

Established in 1954, this exclusive privately-owned North Wales Caravan Park is surrounded by some of the most magnificent landscapes in Britain, with stunning views in every direction. Quietly tucked away on the outskirts of the famous medieval walled-town of Conwy, the park is within easy reach of the countless attractions and activities on offer in this wonderful part of the world.

Manor Restaurant

Inside, enjoy the warm hospitality and delicious food, real fires and the many unique features, including a collection of hand carved oak fireplaces which are original to the house. Outside, enjoy crown green bowls, or simply relax, raise a glass to each other, and take in the view from one of our sun terraces.
