Main Particulars

This Willerby Grasmere at Docker Holiday Park is a beautiful modern holiday home with a good size lounge filled with light from the large windows. The L Shaped sofa is brilliant for watching movies with all the family and can turn into a sofa bed so additional guests can stay.

Situated in the heart of the beautiful Lune Valley, Docker Holiday Park is a boutique, rural retreat. This small incredibly scenic park is a short cycle ride from the historic city of Lancaster and the historic market town of Kirkby Lonsdale, which is wedged between the Lake District and Yorkshire Dales. Sat in the Lune Valley, Docker Holiday Park is a jewel in the crown of the Lancashire countryside with fantastic views right across the valley.

For those interested in angling there is a private fishing lake on site and the whole area is crisscrossed with meandering footpaths to explore with friends and family.

Owning a holiday home close to Kirkby Lonsdale means you have a quiet and relaxing retreat, less than 6 miles from eclectic mix of events, landmarks, shops and restaurants like Devils Bridge, and the Victorian Fair which is now a major event in the North of England
